

Manuscript Warranty & Copyright Assignment Form

It is our policy to ask all contributors to transfer the copyright for their submission to Neoplasia Press, Inc., Translational Oncology's publisher. By signing this agreement you assign to Neoplasia Press, Inc., in consideration of our publishing of your contribution, the exclusive, irrevocable, royalty-free copyright in your contribution in any present or future medium throughout the world for the full term of the copyright. This assignment shall allow Neoplasia Press, Inc. to publish, distribute, create derivative works, and otherwise use any material accepted for publication in Translational Oncology worldwide. You, and any of your co-authors, may publish figures or other parts of the contribution in connection with any other work by you by obtaining our written permission, and provided that you make the usual acknowledgment when doing so.

It is also our policy to request certain warranties from authors. Accordingly, you hereby warrant that you are the sole author of the contribution or, if not, that you are the duly authorized agent of your co-authors, with their full written authority to transfer the copy-right to Neoplasia Press, Inc. and to make the following warranties and representations on their behalf:

1. You, and where appropriate the other authors, have the full right to transfer the copyright to us. You have not previously assigned or licensed any rights in all or any part of the contribution to any other person or entity and that no one else would have the right to prevent us from publishing the contribution.
2. All the facts in your contribution are true and accurate.
3. The contribution is entirely original to you (and where appropriate to the other authors) or, if not, the permission of the owner of the copyright in any material copied from elsewhere and not in the public domain has been obtained. All such permissions must be attached to this copyright assignment form.
4. The contribution has not previously been published other than as an abstract at a bona fide scientific meeting.
5. Nothing in the contribution is obscene or libelous, or otherwise violates any rights of any person or entity.
6. No treatment, medication, dosage, prescription, procedure, instrumentation, medical device, or other medical advice provided in the article will be injurious to a person or inconsistent with the applicable standards and practices established by the appropriate medical community or governmental regulatory authority.
7. Nothing in the contribution infringes any duty of confidentiality that you or any author may owe to anyone else.
8. All experiments described were performed with the approval of the appropriate institutional or governmental authorities.
9. If an author is a US Government employee and if his/her work was performed in that capacity, the assignment applies only to the extent allowable by US Law. A co-author who is not a government employee should sign this Agreement.
10. The authors agree to pay a flat publication charge of $1600 per manuscript (up to 8 pages and $200 for each additional page).

If you agree to these warranties and the transfer of copyright, together with your obligation to pay publication charge, please complete the section below and submit the form with your contribution so that we may proceed with publication. Note that in cases where a manuscript is not accepted for publication, the portions of this agreement regarding copyright transfer to Neoplasia Press, Inc. shall be null and void.
